URBAN DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla-2, the 28th August, 2018

No. UD-F(5)-4/2018.—The Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to publish the guidelines for scheme known as Shresth Shahar Yojna (SSY) as per Annexure-“S”. The Scheme aims to reward and incentivise best performing Urban Local Bodies (Municipal Council/Nagar Panchayat) on the indicators of sanitations/cleanliness, increase in income, public services delivery, construction regulations, fund utilization, public in frastructure and official work.

By order,
RAM SUBHAG SINGH,
Addl. Chief Secretary (UD).

ANNEXURE-“S”

1. INTRODUCTION :

Urban areas are often called the "engines of growth". The number of urban areas has been growing across the State and the existing urban areas have been witnessing growth in population. It is the responsibility of the State to provide various facilities to people residing in urban areas. Urban Local Bodies (ULB) provide an essential link between the State Government and the urban population. ULBs provide number of basic services to the urban population like sanitation, parks, roads, garbage collection, streetlights etc. as a result of which the role that ULBs play in the quality of life of people is substantial. A better and clean environment is sine qua non of healthy living. In order to raise the standard of services being provided to the people by the ULBs, it is essential to foster competitive spirit among various ULB so that they strive to provide better services to the urban populace of the State. In pursuance of this initiative, the State Government has introduced “Shresth Shahar Yojna” (SSY) with effect from 1st April, 2018 to select the best Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat based on the twin indicators of sanitation/cleanliness and public services. The scheme aims to reward and incentivise best performing ULBs on the indicators of sanitation/cleanliness, increase in income, public services delivery, construction regulations, fund utilisation, public infrastructure and official work. The best performing ULBs will be felicitated with “Shrestha Shahar Puruskar” by the Honourable Chief Minister on 15th August of every year at the State Level Independence Day function.

2. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA :

- (I) The scheme is applicable to all the Municipal Councils & Nagar Panchayats of the State.
- (II) It is mandatory for all the Municipal Councils and Nagar Panchayats of the state to participate in the scheme.
- (III) The ULB making a false claim will be penalized by deduction of its grant equivalent to the false information filed and disciplinary action would be initiated.

3. INDICATOR FOR ASSESSMENT :

The best Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat will be selected on the basis of its performance on various indicators. On the basis of relative importance of various aspects of the below given indicators, weightage has been assigned to various indicators & sub-indicators. The ULBs will be ranked on the basis of cumulative score obtained on various indicators and sub-indicators. The format for self assessment and assessment by the assessment committee is given in Annexure-B. The broad parameters for assessment and their weightage is as under :—

Sl. No.	Indicator	Max Score
1.	Sanitation/Cleanliness	25
2.	Public Service delivery	25
3.	Increase in income	15
4.	Construction regulations	10
5.	Fund Utilisation	10
6.	Public Infrastructure	10
7.	Work as per rules	5
	Total . .	100

4. INCENTIVE PATTERN :

The incentive pattern to SSY prize winners i.e. Municipal Council and Nagar Panchayat will be as under :—

Sl. No	ULB Type	Prize Money
1.	Municipal Council	₹ 1,00,00,000.00 (Rupees One Crore)
2.	Nagar Panchayat	₹ 75,00,000.00 (Rupees Seventy Five Lakhs)

Note:— In case of tie for a particular position, the prize money will be distributed equally amongst equal scoring ULBs.

- One Prize of ₹ 5,00,000 (Rupees Five Lakh) each will be given to the top scoring Municipal Council(s) & Nagar Panchayat (s) for the below mentioned two categories i.e. total of four prizes of ₹ 5.00 lakh each—

- Sanitation/Cleanliness
- Public Service delivery

These 5 lakh rupees would be over and above the above mentioned prize money. It is mandatory for all Municipal Councils & Nagar Panchayats of the state to participate in the scheme.

5. SCREENING PROCEDURE :

- (I) To apply for SSY, Municipal Councils and Nagar Panchayats i.e. Urban Local Body should send their claim on the prescribed application form as per Annexure-A to Director of Urban Development by 30th of April every year.
- (II) The application submitted by the Municipal Councils and Nagar Panchayats will be scrutinised by a “Screening Committee” headed by the Director, Urban Development at the level of Directorate of Urban Development, H. P. The committee will have following as its members :-
 1. Additional/Joint/ Dy. Director, Urban Development, H.P.
 2. Representative of Director, TCP, H.P.
